

K-Love radio benefits my community by providing commercial free, christian music. It is listened to by churchs and families, and is one of very few stations that doesn't use cursing and inappropriate language. If it was displaced my community would greatly lack in support of the morals we need.